

MassAEYC

Third Annual Poster Exhibition on Promising Practices in Early Education

NOTE: New Time Slot

Saturday, March 25, 2017 8:00-9:00am in the Main Ballroom

Westford Regency Inn and Conference Center

2017 Poster Exhibitor Application

The Poster Exhibition is a way for practitioners to showcase their promising practices in early childhood education. Exhibitors document practice on a tri-fold poster board. We provide a table for the tri-fold poster to stand on and for other materials that enhance the poster.

Name:

Address:

Phone Number:

Email Address:

Program:

Position:

Date of Application:

Title of Poster:

Who would benefit from this Promising Practice:

Infant educators

Toddler educators

Preschool educators

Kindergarten educators

School Age educators

Administrators

Other:

Briefly describe the Promising Practice you will document in your display and explain why it is a Promising Practice for the field of Early Childhood Education.

What will other educators learn from your display? Why is it important to the field of early childhood education?

Please describe any other materials you plan to bring.

Attach additional pages or photos as desired.

Email questions and completed applications to: sarah.c.sian@gmail.com

Applications will be accepted until February 1, 2017. Completed applications will be reviewed by the Promising Practices Committee of the MassAEYC Conference Committee and the applicant will be notified of acceptance.